This booklet is an informative summary of the Federal subsistence hunting regulations contained in 50 CFR Part 100 and 36 CFR Part 242, simplified for your convenience. There may be errors or omissions that have not been identified and changes that occur after this printing. This booklet is intended as an informational guide only. To be certain of current regulations, refer to the official Code of Federal Regulations and the Federal Register publications.

The regulations, except customary and traditional use determinations, appearing in this booklet may be changed by special actions of the Federal Subsistence Board at any time. In general, customary and traditional use determinations are only made through the annual regulatory process.

If additional clarification is needed, contact the Office of Subsistence Management.
